Associate Lawyer Position

Boutique Aboriginal law firm in downtown Victoria is seeking a dynamic lawyer to join our team on a full time, permanent basis.

We are: a leading Aboriginal law firm providing Indigenous peoples across Canada with a full range of legal services, including litigation, negotiation, economic development and strategic advice. We offer a competitive compensation and benefits package.

You are: a lawyer with one to five years of experience, and a keen interest or background in Aboriginal law. You are self-motivated, and possess strong organizational, communication, time management, and legal research and writing skills. You are willing and able to travel, attend client meetings, make court appearances, and develop new skills in a varied and fulfilling legal practice.

Please email your résumé and cover letter, along with two writing samples, to Shelley MacKenzie at shelley@dgwlaw.ca
